MOTION FOR LEAVE FOR ANDREW E. WETZLER TO APPEAR AS COUNSEL

ILLINOIS
COMMERCE COMMISSION
2008 JAN -7 P 12:46
CHIEF CLERK'S OFFICE

The Natural Resources Defense Council ("NRDC") hereby requests that Andrew E. Wetzler be granted leave under Title 83, Section 200.90(a), of the Illinois Administrative Code to represent NRDC as co-counsel in the above-referenced proceeding with Shannon Fisk. 83 ILCS § 200.90(a). In support of its request, NRDC states as follows:

1. Mr. Wetzler is the Deputy Director of NRDC's Midwest Regional Office and a Senior Attorney with NRDC.
2. Mr. Wetzler is a resident of Worthington, Ohio.
3. NRDC's Midwest Office is only a year old and has limited attorneys on staff. All of NRDC's Midwest Office attorneys admitted to practice law in the State of Illinois are unavailable for the trial of this matter, now scheduled for January 4, 2008, due to scheduled vacation or because they will be appearing before other adjudicatory bodies on different matters.

4. Mr. Wetzler is familiar with the facts and law at issue in this matter and with similar proceedings in other states, including Ohio and California.
5. Mr. Wetzler is an attorney admitted to practice law in the State of California and before numerous federal district courts, including the Central and Northern Districts of California, and the Ninth and District of Columbia Circuit Court of Appeals.
6. The California Public Utility Commission allows any person to represent a party in its adjudications, and thus would allow an Illinois attorney to represent a party in a proceeding similar to this one. See California Public Utilities Commission, Rules of Practice and Procedure, Rule 1.4 (Participation in Proceedings).
7. Mr. Fisk is an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Illinois.

WHEREFORE, the Natural Resources Defense Council requests that Mr. Wetzler be permitted to act as co-counsel for NRDC in this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

NATURAL RESOURCES DEFENSE COUNCIL
